

Friday, March 28, 2003

Trane gives support to Operation Eagle's Nest

Contributed photo

Mel VanHooser, center, Trane human resources director, presents a $1,000 donation to Edward Rufo, right, of Corlew Chevrolet-Cadillac-Oldsmobile, and Bill Sites, left, of Sites Jewelers, for Operation Eagle's Nest, a project of Clarksville, Hopkinsville, Ky., and Oak Grove, Ky., to assist 101st families.

Mel VanHooser, Trane human resources manager, presented a check for $1,000 to Edward Rufo, of Corlew Chevrolet-Cadillac-Oldsmobile, and Bill Sites, of Sites Jewelers, as Trane's contribution to Operation Eagle's Nest.

Operation Eagle's Nest was established to raise funds for military soldiers and families of soldiers assigned to the 101st Airborne Division and other units at Fort Campbell.

Donations will be distributed to organizations that include Chaplain's Tithes and Offerings Fund, Operation Helping Hands, Installation Morale, Welfare and Recreation Fund, Units Funds, Family Readiness Center, Family Readiness Groups, Youth Sports, Teen/Youth Programs, Army Family Team Building, Army Family Action Plan, Installation Volunteer Program, Little Soldier Tree, and Respite Child Care.

Operations Eagle's Nest will sponsor entertainment activities and functions — free car washes, youth sporting events, family picnics, movie days, miniature golf and bowling days, concerts and tours — with the participation of the Fort Campbell Families Readiness Group Leaders.

Operation Eagle's Nest adopted the entire post. Offerings are tax deductible. To support Operation Eagle's Nest, contributions can be mailed to P.O. Box 203, Fort Campbell, KY 42223.